

Grand Island

Nebraska

Grand Island's attractions and events will keep you engaged throughout your entire stay in our city.

In Grand Island you will find Fonner Park, where the springtime tradition of Thoroughbred horse racing thunders around the track, the Nebraska State Fair entertains, and national livestock shows show off the agricultural roots of our community. Grand Island is also home to the Husker Harvest Days farm show, Stuhr Museum and the University of Nebraska's Raising Nebraska – a modern agricultural showcase.

Grand Island is connected by the popular downtown Railside District with its abundant dining and shopping. The free and festive atmosphere of the Hear Grand Island concert series fills Railside with music of every genre during the summer.

Stuhr Museum

Every museum tells a story, but the 200 acre Stuhr Museum puts you in the story. This living history museum has been praised as the "best preserved pioneer town" (True West) and tells the story of people settling on the plains. It offers spectacular architecture, a recreated railroad town staffed by historic interpreters during the summer and holidays, Native American displays, and much more.

Sandhill Crane Migration

The world's largest crane roost, as documented by Crane Trust scientists, is just outside of Grand Island. It fills up every spring in the Central Platte River Valley when the central flyway hosts nearly 1,000,000 sandhill cranes in a roughly 90-mile span of the river. Jane Goodall visits almost every year, and National Geographic pegged it as the second greatest North American migration.
