Places & Spaces: Crane Trust Nature Center

The Crane Trust is best known as a place to see the sandhill crane migration. But the rest of the year, it is a thriving, working, nature center. Learn about and experience this spot in the Platte River Valley with the help of staff and guides.

Nature

Stretch your legs on one of the many trails at the nature center. Stay close by the visitors' center or take a mile walk. Learn about the various plants and pollinators that make this location so important to the area's ecosystem.

Bison

The Crane Trust plays host to many birds on their migratory paths, but it is also the home to a large herd of bison. Go on a "safari" to see the bison and learn how the behavior of these large animals impacts prairie restoration.

Films

See one or more of the short films which showcases the beauty of the region, the spectacle of the great sandhill crane migration and the work of the Crane Trust. Plus hear from nationally renowned photographers and videographers who make this place a must on their travels.

Gallery/Gift Shop

The visitor center's Hornady Art Gallery showcases many beautiful photographs taken on or near this part of the Platte River. Nearby is the Crimson Crown Gift Shop where you can purchase everything from a bird guide to a silk scarf as a reminder of your time here.

The Stuhr Building

Places & Spaces: Stuhr Museum

Praised as the “best preserved pioneer town” (True West), Stuhr Museum tells the story of early pioneers settling on the plains. Its 200 acres offer spectacular architecture, and a recreated railroad town staffed by historic interpreters during the summer and holidays. You can also see Native American displays, vintage vehicles, and much more. Peek behind the curtain at their collections building and archives. Call for hours and admission, which vary with the season and special events.

Railroad Town

This recreated pioneer community features a working planing mill, blacksmith, and tinsmith shop. Businesses and homes are furnished to reflect the 1890s, including the birthplace of Henry Fonda.

The Stuhr Building

The museum’s main building was designed by renowned architect Edward Durell Stone, known for designing Radio City Music Hall and the John F.

Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. The Stuhr Building houses history displays, a rotating art gallery, and special exhibits.

Fonner Rotunda

The Fonner Rotunda houses Native American and cowboy exhibits plus items from the Bartenbach Opera House. The beautiful Arrow Maker statue anchors this round structure. Outside is a sculpture of the Martin Brothers. Learn about their harrowing story of survival.

Farm Implements & Automobiles

Check out steam tractors and a collection of antique cars.

Places & Spaces: Historic Railside District

The Railside District, Grand Island's historic downtown, has experienced a renaissance over the past decade. Unique shopping, dining, and entertainment opportunities are all within a few block stroll when you're Railside.

The Grand Theatre

Railside's lovingly restored movie house offers an experience you won't find at any modern cineplex for less than half the price. Films are shown Fri-Sun nights in the 1930s art-deco theater. Schedule a tour.

Railside breweries

Prairie Pride is an award winning brewery and tap room serving pale ales to stouts. Brewhaus tours are available. Nearby, The Chicken Coop restaurant features their own cream soda and root beer, plus brews from their regional brewery.

Railside shopping

Railside has long been known for its antique stores. Recently, a number of independent specialty stores have opened in the district.

Guided Tours

When you stroll Railside you'll see sculptures, murals, and wings painted in alley ways. You can interact with the art by taking photos to help remember your time in Railside. You'll also see historic buildings dating back to the 1880s. Take a guided art or history tour courtesy of Grand Island Tourism.

Treats

If you have a sweet tooth, stop in The Chocolate Bar or Big Red Treats. You can have cake, a truffle, or Nebraska grown popcorn. Big Red Treats popping room tours are available by appointment (not handicapped accessible).

Events

Grand Island is an event driven community, from small to large events focused on entertainment to agriculture. If you are planning a trip to Grand Island, contact Grand Island Tourism to see what special event might be happening while you're here. We may be able to make special arrangements for your group.

Craft Brew and Sausage Fest

Sample the best beer and sausages in Nebraska every August while enjoying live music in the courtyard of the historic Liederkrantz German club. When you go inside, check out the original bar from the 1870s. Pre-arrangement for a group tour of this 150 year old club is possible.

Concerts

Hear GI is a 10 week, summer concert series in Grand Island's historic downtown. This award-winning event showcases diverse music, with a festival vibe while the year-long Grand Island Music Series features a variety of music in traditional outdoor and indoor settings.

Nebraska State Fair, 11 days from late August to Early September

This fair has it all, from entertainment to competitive entries, and fun foods to agricultural shows. Check out the hundreds of quilts in the Expo Center's Quilt Room.

Kite Festival

High-flying fun is the motto of this event which features professional kite flyers. See day and night flights.

Husker Harvest Days

In September, Husker Harvest Days — the world's largest totally irrigated farm show — takes place at a permanent site west of Grand Island. This three day show features the latest in technology.

Rodeo Grand Island

Rodeo Grand Island is an annual, late winter, PRCA showcase of professional cowboys in the Heartland Events Center.
